

Conversation Skills: Follow-Up Questions #1

This is the transcript for the video: <https://youtu.be/cyfLcLqHn> 8

Robert: Hi Mary, How are you?

Mary: I'm great! How are you, Robert?

Robert: Well, actually I'm a little tired. I was up late last night.

Mary: Oh, you're a night person, right?

Robert: Yes, that's right. Last night, I stayed up until 3 a.m. because I was watching my favorite movie.

Mary: Really? What is your favorite movie?

Robert: My favorite movie is "Back to the Future" with Michael J. Fox. I like sci-fi and comedies. It is both sci-fi and comedy so it's my favorite movie. What kind of movies do you like Mary?

Mary: I like suspense movies.

Robert: What's your favorite suspense movie?

Mary: My favorite suspense movie is "Captain Phillips" with Tom Hanks.

Robert: Oh, that is a great movie. My father likes that movie, too. He likes it because he is ship's captain.

Mary: Your father is a captain on a ship?

Robert: That's right.

Mary: What company does he work for?

Robert: He works for Carnival Cruise World Tours.

Mary: Where does he work?

Robert: He works on a cruise ship. The cruise ship takes people on romantic cruises to Australia and New Zealand. What does your father do, Mary?

Mary: My father is a teacher.

Robert: Where does he work?

Mary: He works at City High School.

Robert: What does he teach?

Mary: He teaches math.

Robert: How long has he been working there?

Mary: He has been working there for 25 years. Soon he will retire.

Robert: That's great. I wish I could retire.

Mary: Oh Robert...You are too young to retire.

Robert: I know. By the way, did I tell you I got a new job?

Mary: No, what do you do?

Robert: I'm a cashier.

Mary: Where do you work?

Robert: I work at the convenience store over there.

Mary: How long have you worked there?

Robert: Today is my first day. In fact, I am late for work so I had better go now. See you later Mary.

Mary: Okay, have a good day, Robert.

Robert: Gotta run...